Police Notes

Henry Iaea, a Hawaiian charged with taking several articles of value including a silver-mounted handbag, from the premises of William Welsh, was sentenced to serve a term of one year at hard labor in the city and county prison this morning, following his conviction in the district court. Iaea is said by the police to have a rather unenviable record. He recently left a penal institution, having been sent there on a larceny charge. The defendant admitted his guilt and in a confession offered Acting Prosecuting Attorney Chillingworth the man is declared to have stated that he found his way into the house after dark, at a time when members of the family were absent. The handbag had been offered for sale at a Japanese jeweler's and it was through this source that the police were able to get a line upon the guilty party. Iaea claimed that he was under the influence of liquor at the time he committed the theft.

ALAKEA STREET PROPERTY.

Morris Rosenbiedt has sold to William E. Brown the property on Alakea street, next the Y. M. C. A., formerly the home of the late Theodore C. Porter, a minister of finance under the provisional government. There is a cottage on the premises, and the area is 5360 square feet. The price was $10,000 net.

RUDOLPH J. BERGER
FAILED TO SEE CAR.
SAYS CORONER'S JURY

That Rudolph J. Berger, who was killed Tuesday evening when his motorcycle collided with a Rapid Transit car near Kapiolani Park, did not see the conveyance until he was within a few feet of it, is the gist of the testimony offered by witnesses at the coroner's jury at the police station this afternoon. They claim that had he seen the car, he would have had ample time to swerve and avoid collision.

Police Surgeon N. B. Emerson, who made an examination of the body, reported that death was caused by fracture of the skull and shock, followed by hemorrhage.

The witnesses examined were the crew of the street-car and its single passenger.

HARMONY MOVE HAS FRIEND IN
L. L. McCANDLESS

L. L. McCandless and the McCandless Democrats are apparently ready to meet half-way any move for harmony made in the Democratic party. Mr. McCandless said this morning that he expects to attend the meeting called for tomorrow night in the Kapiolani block and that he believes the party will stand together.

"The aim of the party is to win, and we certainly won a great victory at the last election," he said. "We elected three senators on Oahu, almost all of our candidates for representative and all the county nominees except three. The party is all right, but if we have any faults, we will be glad to remedy them."

"I believe in standing by the party," he continued, "and I do not believe in mugwumpism and in throwing down party nominees. Nor do I believe in saying that this element or that element should be eliminated. Personally, I do not know that there is any lack of harmony in the party generally. There may be a few people not in sympathy with the rest of the party, but the majority are working together all right."

Senator D. E. Metzger of Hilo, who is in Honolulu on business, says that he expects to attend the meeting tomorrow night. E. M. Watson is reported to be against the move on account of hostility to the McCandless wing.

UNSEEMLY SOUNDS ON
AUTOS ARE UNDER BAN

In order better to enforce a section of the speed law relating to the noise nuisance of vehicles, the civil service commission at its meeting last night incorporated that section—Section 19, Ordinance 11—in its rules and regulations for the police department. The section makes it unlawful for a vehicle to have on it an "instrument for the purpose of warning," which produces a loud or disagreeable sound. The section is as follows:

"It shall be unlawful for any person operating vehicles described within Section 18 of this ordinance to use thereon, while traveling through the streets, any instruments for the purpose of warning which shall produce a sound of an unusually loud, annoying or distressing character, or such that will tend to frighten pedestrians or animals, it being the intention of this section to prohibit the use of so-called 'sirens' or similar instruments for the purpose of producing unusually loud, or distressing, or annoying sounds."

It was stated that many bicycles have been equipped with small siren-type instruments, which are capable of giving out a disagreeable and unnecessary noise. The commissioners stated that they felt if this section were incorporated in the rules and regulations of the police department, a stricter enforcement of it would follow.

SHERIFF SUSPENDS
OFFICERS PENDING
THOROUGH PROBE

Patrolmen H. Kane and William Peters, who have seen several years in the service, at four o'clock, were yesterday afternoon suspended by Sheriff William P. Jarrett, for a period of fifteen days, following their admission of having been drinking while on duty. The offense is said at the sheriff's office to have occurred last Tuesday afternoon. In accordance with the provisions regulating the management of the department as laid down by the police commission, Sheriff Jarrett notified that body of his determination, at its meeting last night. The commission concurred in the action taken by the sheriff.

Pending an investigation now in progress by Sheriff Jarrett, Detectives M. Olson, R. Hobron and M. C. Swift have been requested to turn in their commissions and stars, if being alleged that the three officers were participants in a disturbance at Pua Lane on Tuesday evening.

The suspension of these officers has not been fixed at any definite date, as the sheriff will hear the testimony of a number of witnesses to the affair. Olson, Hobron and Swift were called before their chief late yesterday afternoon, and then told that they would be given sufficient time in which to present their side of the case. The charge is made, in the case of Hobron and Swift, that they were absent from duty without leave. Olson had been given a day off, but it is stated that he was found to have been drinking to excess on the day in question. According to the story related by Olson, Hobron was abusing his wife, and for this reason he took a hand in the game as peace-maker. The officers are charged with having become involved in a row, which brought forth outside interference.

At the sheriff's office it is claimed that Olson has been twice suspended from the service because of infractions of the rules.
